MEMORANDUM FOR: THE RECORD

SUBJECT: MKULTRA, Subproject 63 (Continuation)

1. The purpose of this subproject is to maintain the professional services of [redacted] to TSD/RB. These services include special consultations in [redacted] and in [redacted] special projects which have required his travel [redacted] briefings, participation in planning sessions, and ongoing observation and research.

2. [redacted] has developed since 1954 under Agency sponsorship considerable experience with psychopharmacological materials of immediate relevance to the Agency operational capability in this field. In addition to some of the more esoteric hallucinogenic drugs, [redacted] has done a number of studies involving the use of alcohol. He has recognized that the variations in behavior demonstrated by non-alcoholic individuals in a natural setting suggest that studies of alcohol as a drug have been too superficial. It is planned to have [redacted] continue to explore the use of alcohol as a social phenomenon with particular emphasis upon those variables that would prove predictive in the assessment and possible manipulation of human behavior. In addition, [redacted] would be expected to consult on any additional work that may be done with hallucinogenic drugs of immediate operational interest.

3. The cost of the program for one year is estimated to be $5500. Charges should be made against Allotment 1125-1390-3902.

The original pilot studies were used to develop the subsequent structured experiments but the data was never original. never were studied. Now after progressing through three years of structured experiments to field experiments, it may prove valuable to return to the original data and give it sufficient attention to see what it can contribute.

2. Developing (wit[redacted] C conceptual and categorical framework for the observation, analysis and prediction of behavior under varying social conditions of alcohol use. These come from work with:

   (a) My field work observations.

   (b) Observation of informal home and private parties.

   (c) Information from our social drinking experiments.

   This includes presentation of the reactions of eight subjects that were studied in the wide variety of situations above mentioned.

3. Assisting at any other ongoing aspects of our work, such as:

   (a) Continuing to work on the analysis of literature as a source of data on alcohol use in our culture.

   (b) Continuing familiarity with and organization of our previous work with Lysergic Acid.

   (c) Continued work on personality and situational appraisal methods.

   (d) Other consultations as needed by my associates [redacted] C

Although many areas are here presented, the engagement in any of these areas will not be intensive, but be determined by what I can do alone and by what is necessary to produce continuity of project development and preservation of existing research data in this area.

Dear [redacted]

I wish to continue with the work in which I have been engaged since 1949, namely, studying the effect of psychotomentic drugs - studying the psychological, social and situational determinants of drug action.

The specific areas of study which I propose to give special attention to throughout 1960 are the following:

1. Developing my present studies of natural drinking (alcohol) situations in the following directions:

   (a) Developing a classification of natural drinking situations (bars and cafes) in [redacted] and vicinity which has wide applicability.

   This is a development from pilot studies started in 1956 with more organized studies in 1958 and 1959.

   It is based upon the assumption that the methods of observation and interview found valuable in the study of ward (mental hospital) situations are applicable to the study of bars and cafes.

   (b) Continuation of bartender interviews previously reported, with the goal of obtaining a more representative sample and obtaining the additional information available from interviewing techniques that have improved with experience.

   (c) Developing methods for study of bar and tavern clients with the aim of using this field station as a natural focus for personality and situational appraisal and prediction. This work has been in progress since 1956 but has those manifold difficulties of a relatively unstructured, uncontrolled situation.

Dear [redacted]

Despite the brevity of my recent visit, I feel I got a pretty good picture of the progress of the project. I also feel we made some headway in planning for this year's experiments, although I left the staff with a lot of unanswered questions and thorny problems. It will be interesting to see what we can come up with for role-playing situations, and I hope you all can spend some time with the symbolic logic man thinking out the "philosophy" of behavior prediction.

Enclosed is a check for $1,087.67, which includes the travel expenses for the May conference. We already have your travel statement, but we need a statement of 20 days at $50.00 for the quarterly stipend. If you can have the statement placed on a [redacted] letterhead and dated about September 5th it will be just right for the record. We would also appreciate your signing and returning the receipt for the check.

[redacted] is looking forward to his visit on 28-29 October, and I anticipate coming up the following week. Best wishes to all of you.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE RECORD

B [redacted] and B

as such is prohibited by law from receiving pay from [redacted] funds B beyond his normal salary. Since the research grant (from the cover fund) is made to the [redacted] the B granted funds technically become [redacted] monies. As a consequence B

C [redacted] cannot legally be paid from them for services on this research project. He is however legally permitted to engage in private practice outside the hospital insofar as payment does not come from [redacted] funds. B

Since research is a normal part of his hospital responsi-

C bilities, [redacted] neither expects nor desires additional reimbursement for the basic research conducted at the hospital. In addition to his hospital research, however, [redacted] from time to time C called upon by TSS/CD for services in connection with other special activities such as:

(1) Consultations [redacted] lectures, briefings, C participation in planning sessions.

(2) Special reports on the operational application of psychochemicals, defenses against psychochemicals, and related topics.

(3) Participation in and direction of Agency sponsored (internal or external) "training exercises" and courses in the general area of alcohol and social drinking.

Since many of these services are time consuming, arrangements must be made for reimbursing [redacted] in a manner and in an amount roughly equivalent to that which he would otherwise receive from private practice.
