Dear Sir:

I have encountered considerable delay in carrying out the transaction that we discussed on the telephone recently. However, we are now in a position to proceed. As I indicated in our conversation, it is necessary for it to appear that the check referred to in the accompanying draft letter originated with your foundation. In future, such grants will actually be routed through you in the usual way and so won't require any special handling. We expect to pay the usual fee for these transactions if that is satisfactory to you.

I am enclosing a draft letter for your use in handling this transaction. If any question should arise, please contact me at [redacted]
