Project [redacted], Subproject 93

Date Initiated: 7 May 1959

Date Expires: 1 July 1962

Funds-current year: $14,250.00

Purpose: Research will be conducted and directed towards the location, isolation, identification and preliminary investigation of the properties of a series of bacterial and fungal toxins. Interest in and study of the materials will reflect CBD interest. Consultation services will be rendered on request.

Status: A continuing investigation. Three candidate toxins are currently under study. Each item of work is relatively short term but each phase is productive in meeting CBD's anticipated requirements.
