AGENDA FOR MEETING 23 JULY 1951

(86)

Briefing:

1. Dr. [redacted] will introduce the members and describe his own entry into the project.

2. Dr. [redacted] will:

a. State the problem

b. Describe the current activities of governmental agencies now active in the field

c. Describe the relation of the offices represented at this meeting to the project.

3. General [redacted] will describe the interest of the using agencies in the project.

4. Mr. [redacted] will discuss the specific applications which will be made of successful project results.

5. Mr. [redacted] will have an opportunity to add to the statement of the project in terms of any special needs of his office.

6. [redacted] will discuss the interest of the military services.

Planning of Future Activities:

1. The functioning of the panel.

2. Objectives - These may be divided into two classes:

a. Long term, e.g. Fundamental research on nerve mechanisms

b. Short term e.g. Preparation of a manual on what to do if captured.