Dear [redacted]

You have undoubtedly, by this time, talked over matters with [redacted] A

I have done all I possibly could for them in the very limited time available. However, I am quite sure they have a good understanding of the subject as both of these boys are highly intelligent, studious and above all most interested in the subject. I am quite sure that with some practice they will work out very satisfactorilly for you.

I have requested that they submit to you orally several recommendations which I think will round out the picture. Mainly that the initial venture in the field of practical application receive some supervision so that their confidence, which is most important, does not get a setback. This in no way implies that I have any doubt about either of them but just that we had to crowd so much into such a very short period of time the actual experience in handling the subject was limited to what we could do among ourselves.

They have probably told you that the other report is in process of completion and you will receive it very shortly.

As you know the matter of voice control is important and as my recordings give a very good example of that technique I supplied each of the boys with a record which, of course, they can constantly refer to when I am not around to direct them. I am not trying to sell records in this instance [redacted] and at the same time I can't afford to give them away as in your program I don't know how large an item this may become. So if agreeable to you, and I'm sure it will be, you can arrange to remit the cost of the records, that is two at $2.37 each or $4.74 (the regular selling price is $3.95 each) I have not vouchered anything in this connection.

Enclosed herewith you will find an envelope containing the voucher for the services of [redacted] which you can arrange to remit to him. C

Keep me posted as to the progress the boys are making in their endeavors with practical application and if you wish anything further, or if they have any questions don't hesitate to let me know.

Kindest regards to yourself and all the boys,

[redacted] C
