[redacted]

1 December 1952

TO : Chief, Operations

FROM : Chief, [redacted] F/H

SUBJECT: [redacted] J

COPY
SEE PG 4

1.

I

His language ability is excellent; he speaks, reads, and writes English and has an excellent working knowledge of [redacted] F/I

2. Occupational Record:

a.

b.

I

(1)

(2)

(3)

(4)

(5)

APPROVED FOR RELEASE
Date 1 JUN 1978

[redacted]

4-112

84

(6)

(7)

3.

a.

(1)

=/I

(2).

(3)

(4)

(5)

b.

(1)
(2)
(3)

4.

a.

:/I

b.

5.

a.

:/I

b.

c.

F/I (1)

(2)

(3)

d. Following the subject's arrival in [redacted] F in August 1951 he underwent two technical interrogations:

(1) On August 13 subject underwent a [redacted] J interrogation. The results confirmed information contained in paragraphs 3 and 4, above.

(2) On 27 August subject underwent a Barbiturate interrogation. The results confirmed information contained in paragraphs 3 and 4, above.

6.

F/I

7.

F/I a. b. c. d.

[redacted]

8. At present the subject is used for the most part in translating [redacted] information for the [redacted] translation section and for Project [redacted] Again the subject has proven himself a capable worker, his translations are inevitably accurate and at the same time rapidly done. To the best of [redacted] knowledge [redacted] has maintained a good standard of security. The subject is not allowed to enter buildings [redacted] for security reasons. His office in the [redacted] which due to the lack of electricity and heating is entirely inadequate.

9. Subject's salary totals $200.00 per month with a $150.00 per month allowance which covers subject's rent and other expenses. [redacted] furnishes the subject with a jeep for transportation to and from work.

10. An operational clearance request for the use of [redacted] as a translator/interpreter with the [redacted] Complex is in the process of being submitted to Headquarters. Operational clearance number [redacted] dated 28 August 1950, for the use of [redacted] in Project [redacted] was revoked on 6 June 1952.

[redacted]

[redacted]